EDUCATION TO PEACE

Education to peace is not confined to a given place. It takes place everywhere. And we are, each and every one of us, responsible for building peace. We tend to hold others responsible for this, as though, individually, we were powerless to act in that direction.

Now, if we are to establish peace in this world, we need to know that peace begins first and foremost with ourselves. That implies that we must find inner peace and inner freedom. The question is: how can we attain that state? Inner peace and inner freedom are interdependent. And both relate to inner unity. Inner unity means that no conflict is rampant within us.
